Aisha Buhari Champions Better Nutrition for Children

Nigeria’s First Lady, Aisha Buhari, has advocated the need for government and well-meaning individuals to prioritize improved nutrition for children stressing that it is their right.

Unlock Potentials of Agriculture, Emefiele Charges African Countries

Governor of the Central Bank of Nigeria (CBN), Godwin Emefiele has charged African countries to place more attention on agriculture if they hope to win the war against acute hunger and malnutrition in the continent.

Nigeria Far from Reaching Food Security Target, Nanono Says

Regional body calls for prioritization of food security in Nigeria, others.
Minister of Agriculture and Rural Development, Muhammad Sabo Nanono, has said that Nigeria still has a lot to do to attain her food self-sufficiency target.

Senior Policy Advisors across sub-Saharan Africa have asked governments of countries in the sub-region to prioritize food and nutrition security, affirming that it is key to economic development and prosperity of any nation.

Bauchi Assembly to declare state of emergency on malnutrition

Speaker of the Bauchi State House of Assembly, Abubakar Sulaiman, has threatened to declare a state of emergency on severe acute malnutrition in the state.

Niger state over the years has experienced steady growth in its nutrition budgetary allocation and utilization. Budgetary allocations to nutrition moved from 80 million naira in 2017 to over 210 million naira in 2020.

US Envoy Tasks FG on farmers, Agribusiness Investors’ Support

The Consul General of the United States, Ms. Claire Pierangelo, has charged the Federal Government to motivate farmers and agribusiness investors, with a view to improving their performance and contributions to the nation’s Gross Domestic Product (GDP).

Use of Infant Formula Increases Child Mortality – NAFDAC

The National Agency for Food and Drug Administration and Control (NAFDAC) says the widespread use of infant formula products will increase child morbidity and mortality in the country.

Breastfeeding: Nigeria moves to 29%.

From 17 in 100 children, the proportion of children who are put to the breast within the first hour of life and go on to exclusively feed on breastmilk for the first six months has risen to 29 in 100 over the past five years.
About 7 million Nigerians will be in food crisis between June, August — FAO

The Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) of the United Nations has said that about 7 million Nigerians in 16 Northern States plus the Federal Capital Territory (FCT) would be in food and nutrition crisis between June and August 2020 in the CH phase 3.

Lagos Government Partners CS–SUNN,
Nutrition Partners to Reduce Malnutrition Indices.

The Lagos State Government has expressed its readiness to work with nutrition partners to reduce the malnutrition indices in the state. Mrs Yewande Falugba, the Permanent Secretary in the state Ministry of Youth and Social Development, said this during an advocacy visit by the CS–SUNN to the ministry.

Rate of under-5 children suffering from anemia high in Nasarawa – CS–SUNN

The Civil Society Scaling Up Nutrition in Nigeria (CS–SUNN) has revealed that about 67.9% of children under the age of five suffering from anaemia with 65.1% of women of reproductive age are suffering the same scourge in Nasarawa State.

Nigeria loses $1.5bn in GDP annually to micro-nutrient deficiencies

Nigeria loses 1.5 billion dollars in Gross Domestic Products (GDP) annually to Micro–Nutrient deficiency (MND), the World Bank, an international financial institution that provides loan to Nigeria and other developing countries, said.
Nutrition Video of the Week

[Video Player]

Editorial Board:
- Lilian Okafor
- Jayne Arinze-Egemonye
- Mary Ajakaye
- Olatubosun Israel Olayemi

Editor-in-Chief:
- Beatrice Eluaka

Editorial Advisors:
- Dr. David Olayemi
- Dr. Daniel Gadzama
- Arch. Julius Ibecheole
- Aji Rachael Robinson
- Dr. Funmi Akinyele
- Ngozika Ogbonna

CS-SUNN - Plot 203 Cadastral Zone B02 Off Osadipe Oye Way (Beside Concordia Apartments) Durumi District Abuja.
www.cs-sunn.org | info@cs-sunn.org

We sent out this message to all existing Company Name customers.
If you want more information about our privacy policy, please visit this page.
©2020 CS-SUNN. All rights reserved.